

Personal Bio

I was born and raised in Williams Lake, British Columbia, Canada, and I am proud to still call it home. With a population of only about 10,000, Williams Lake may be small, but it is well known for its western heritage and proudly hosts one of Canada's largest professional rodeos.

Our hometown also has a rather unique tradition. January 2nd is Wrestling Day, a municipal holiday and a playful follow-up to Boxing Day on December 26th. It's one of those little quirks that makes Williams Lake special.

I have been married to my husband, Steve, for over 30 years. Together, we have a blended family of five children - four boys and one girl - along with seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Steve and I have enjoyed the RV lifestyle since 2001, and it was that love of travelling that eventually brought us to Kino Bay. In 2017, we were heading farther south to Teacapán for what would have been our fourth season there when we decided, almost on a whim, to take a detour and see what Kino Bay was all about.

That little detour changed our plans.

We were immediately struck by how friendly and welcoming everyone was. We decided to stay, joined Club Deportivo, and before long found ourselves becoming part of both the Club and the Kino community.

Over the years, I have become increasingly involved with Club Deportivo and currently serve as Communications Director. I enjoy keeping our members informed and connected and being part of an organization that contributes so much to the community.

What began as an unplanned detour in 2017 turned into something we never expected. We found a wonderful community, made lasting friendships, and discovered a place that has become a very special part of our lives.

Kino Bay is now our happy place.
